

CEO for a Private Equity Owned Chain Restaurant

Blackmore Partners is seeking candidates for a PE owned company in the restaurant industry. This is a chain restaurant that serves high-end deli through multiple branches in Florida. We are seeking candidates with hands on background in successfully opening new restaurants, including finding locations, negotiating leases, building up teams and training staffs. The ideal candidate should have strategic vision, be able to interact with sophisticated board directors and manage executive office, and feel comfortable being out onto the field (i.e. restaurants). Candidates who had a P&L responsibility around $200 M, and experience in managing 10+ locations of restaurant would be ideal.

The company will offer a package of $300-400K base salary plus bonus based on EBITDA improvement (typically up to 50% of raising target) and 3%-5% equity for the right candidate.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Experienced CEO with a P&L around $200 million
- Experience in restaurant management and expansion
- Committed to results and improving EBITDA
- Willing to relocate to Florida
- Strong financial background is a plus

We will only reach out to those who are qualified and please make sure you list the PE experience and the sizes of the companies you have relevant experience in to be considered.

Apply or ask any questions at Talents@blackmorepartnersinc.com